OBJECTIVE

I'm looking for full-time work in the role of Developer in the IT and telecommunications industry.

PERSONAL STATEMENT

Kia Ora! I am a young man who has so much to learn. Much to learn about English, about people, and, of course, about life. New Zealand is a great country to live in, and I am trying to reach back into this beautiful country. I am full of determination, full of charisma, and full of willingness to learn. I have many experiences in the programming area, and I am sure I will make you proud of me.

PERSONAL SKILLS

Communication

I speak with all the people and I have great charisma.

Teamwork

I think collaboration is the best form to make a product successful.

Thinking Skills

Efficiency is an important thing. I always think about how to make my job more comfortable without losing efficiency (or increasing it).

Resilience

"I am what I do". This phrase represents so much to me because people need to know how to divide things and not mix them. I know this, I am resilient.

Willingness to Learn

No one knows everything in this world, and because of it, I am a man full of willing to discover and know more about my job.

Technology Enthusiast

I enjoy using computers and electronic equipment. I am always willing to learn more about the ins and outs of a product.

Math affinity

I am very dedicated to my studies, which include math sometimes. And I always get so devoted to it.

ACHIEVEMENTS

Working Holiday Visa

2019

As a Brazilian, receiving this visa was such a prize. With it, I could finally know how New Zealand is a great place to live.

INTERESTS

- Know more about New Zealand culture.
 - Plan and program mobile apps, web pages, and APIs.
